As a school, this statement has provoked a long list of baffling questions that we require answers to. Why? Because we believe that acting upon the answers will equip Blue Coat pupils to be ready for their futures (our school's vision).

We're looking for inquisitive, committed and like-minded learning coaches who are also uneasy about leaving big questions unanswered.

In return, we can offer you a long list of prospects topped by:

- amazing pupils who never fail to make you smile
- fresh, new ideas in becoming a better educator (and leader)
- a valued part in a friendly, collegiate and talented teaching team
- fantastic facilities, beautiful surroundings and easy access from most locations

Don't dodge the big questions; join us in finding the answers so as to become a better teacher and play a key part in successful and exciting futures.

This is a great time to join and shape a high performing team who will support you and your induction. The salary for this post is Main Scale and is, therefore, suitable and open to all teachers to apply. It is potentially ideal for those who have recently gained QTS i.e. M2-M3.
