

VACANCY

Are you a playful person?

We are looking for a friendly person who is passionate about supporting young people to join Blue Coat's Play Team.

Key tasks include working within a high quality outdoor environment to offer active, social and creative play opportunities for all Blue Coat children at lunch time, plus working with our catering team to ensure that everyone gets their lunch on time.

A successful applicant will join the team delivering award-winning outdoor play at our Outdoor Play and Learning (OPAL) Platinum level school. You must enjoy working as part of a team, enjoy being out and about in all weathers and value the difference that good quality play can make in a child's life.
