

OFSTED Parent View Survey - Blue Coat CEVA Primary School, March 2015 comparison with July 2016

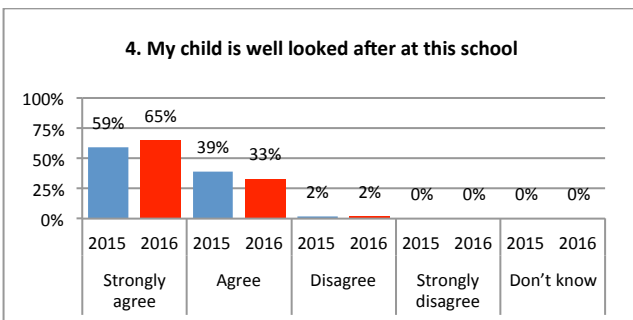

- They are both very happy and enjoy school
- My child is very happy at school; every day they are looking forward to attending.
- Always happy to come to school.
- My child always comes to school happy and returns with positive reports
- She is happy in general but has complained about disagreements with friends

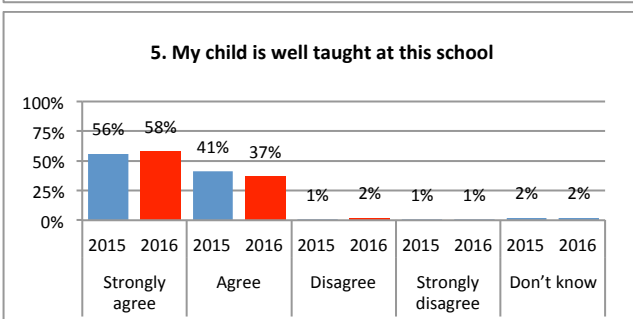

- Much improved with new gates and practice for keeping children where they should be!
- My child feels safe
- No concerns
- No problems!

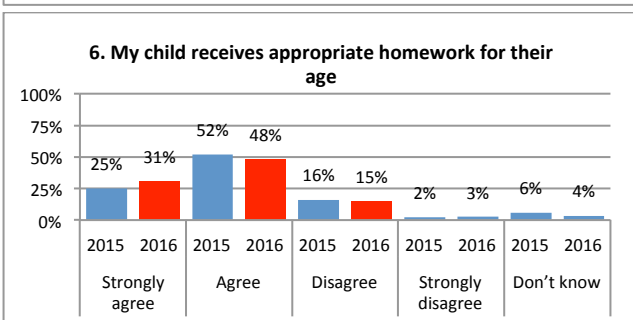

- Blue Coat have been fantastic in helping out in those areas that need it
- He has been lucky to have had teachers and TA who have gone the extra mile for him
- I can see very good improvements
- Difficult to tell exactly given no levels at the end of year

- Amazing teaching and care.
- Yes, even support staff are brilliant with the children
- The teachers and TAs are very caring
- No concerns at all; all staff are very caring
- The school is very caring and sees children as a whole
- Basic needs are met. Teaching is well delivered but emotional needs are less well considered and addressed.

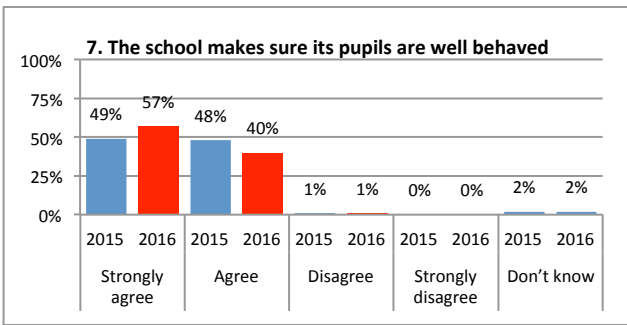

- We have always been very happy with the standard of teaching.
- Excellent teachers and pastoral care
- I am amazed at what he's learnt
- Our child has made good progress and is growing in confidence all the time!
- We have nothing to compare this with

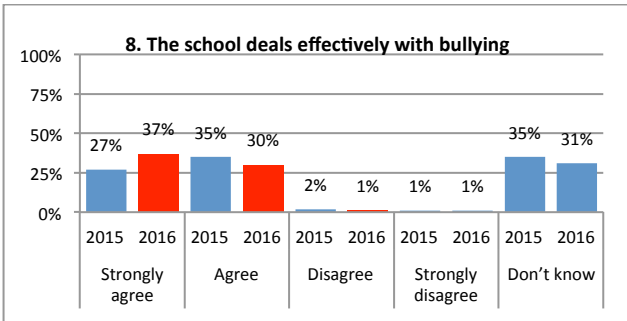

- Homework they have is doable and fun
- We enjoy the homework grids- please continue
- It is age-appropriate and a nice event to showcase
- Homework is manageable if you're organised
- It is difficult to keep up with spelling, reading etc. – the learning grid makes things more stressful
- Marking or feedback for homework would add value
- Weekly homework would be better.

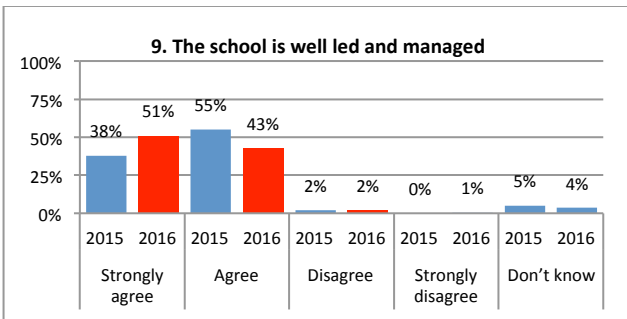

OFSTED Parent View Survey - Blue Coat CEVA Primary School, March 2015 comparison with July 2016

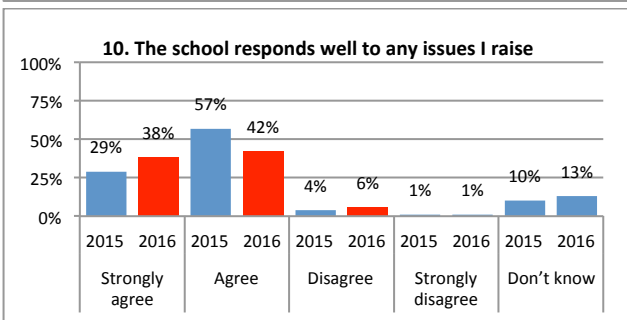

- The class teacher worked hard all year to help my child with behaviour
- Amazing behaviour observed whenever I am at school or see them out and about
- I am unsure how bad behaviour is dealt with
- I think some issues at break/lunchtime in the playground go unnoticed

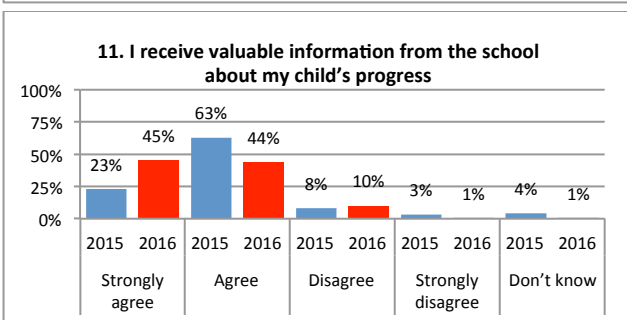

- I have no experience of this so cannot say
- Never had any bullying as an issue
- No idea, but we believe it would be very good if we encountered it
- Don't know no experience = GOOD THING
- The school were unaware that my child was being 'pushed around' at lunchtimes. I had to approach the teacher.

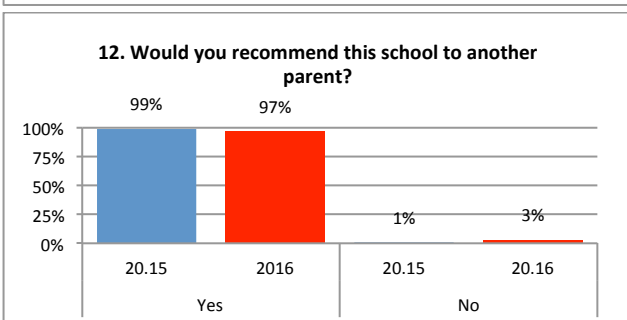

- MUCH better communication this year
- I'm happy with the management
- I think BC's SLT are a good team
- Clear, strong leadership
- It would be good if the SLT were more approachable.

- Never had any problems
- Once the issue was raised, it was dealt with
- On the rare occasions we have had a concern, it has been dealt with sensitively and appropriately
- Generally, yes. Depends on who you speak to
- At times, my child has raised concerns although not acknowledged by teachers

- Yes, this year very much so. Thank you
- Better feedback this year
- I like the report format and extra parents meeting
- I like the new reports and how positive they are
- Reports are too vague. Quartiles would be helpful
- It would be helpful to have more detailed results where possible

- As new parents to the school we are very pleased with all aspects
- We all love Blue Coat. Our children are very happy
- Thought some of the initiatives this year were brilliant!
- It is a happy school with a keen spirit for learning and a safe, stimulating environment
- I would definitely recommend Blue Coat
- It is a good school but there are issues
